Dedication

As a tribute to her friendliness and her devotion to her work, we, the Senior Class, dedicate SPOTLIGHT 1967 to Miss Ellen Gleason.

We honor Miss Gleason for her teaching excellence and for her ability to make the study of English an experience. Miss Gleason's classes are enriched by her great knowledge and understanding of her subject.

We salute you, Miss Gleason, for your warmth and understanding, and for the lasting impression you have made on us all.

Appreciation

It is not often that an Advisor is found with the unique qualities possessed by Mrs. Rhebergen. Her excellent knowledge has proven invaluable as our class Advisor for the past three years. We have found her ready to lend us assistance whenever we have desired understanding and guidance.

The Class of 1967 wishes to express our appreciation in recognition of her devotion and memorable service to us all. To you, Mrs. Rhebergen, we say "Thank you."

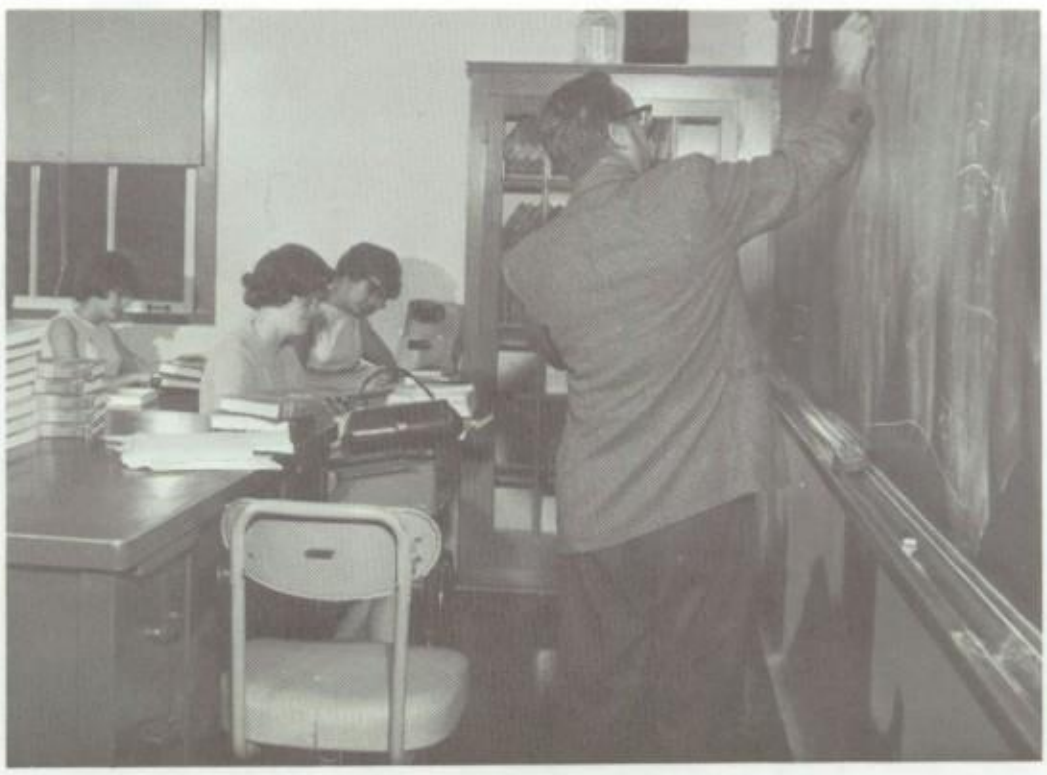
Classes

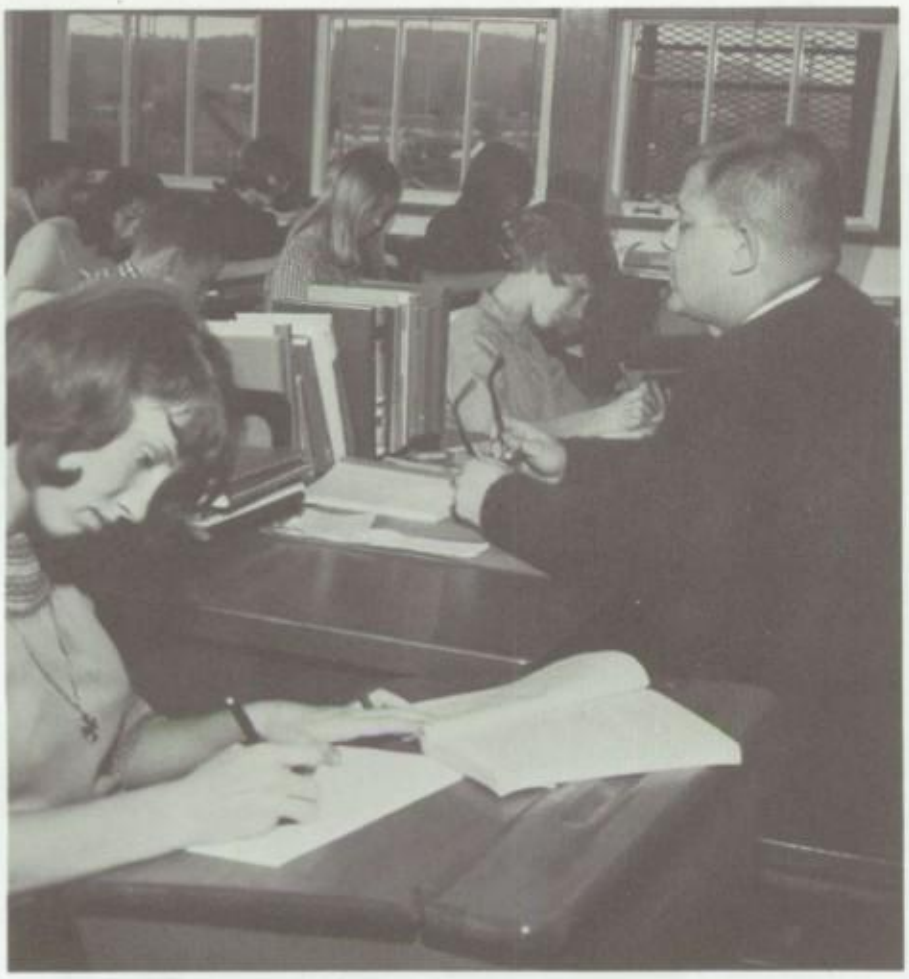
All's quiet on the Western Front.

It's all Greek to me.

Now what did I do with my answer book?

If I shoot three under par on the ninth hole...



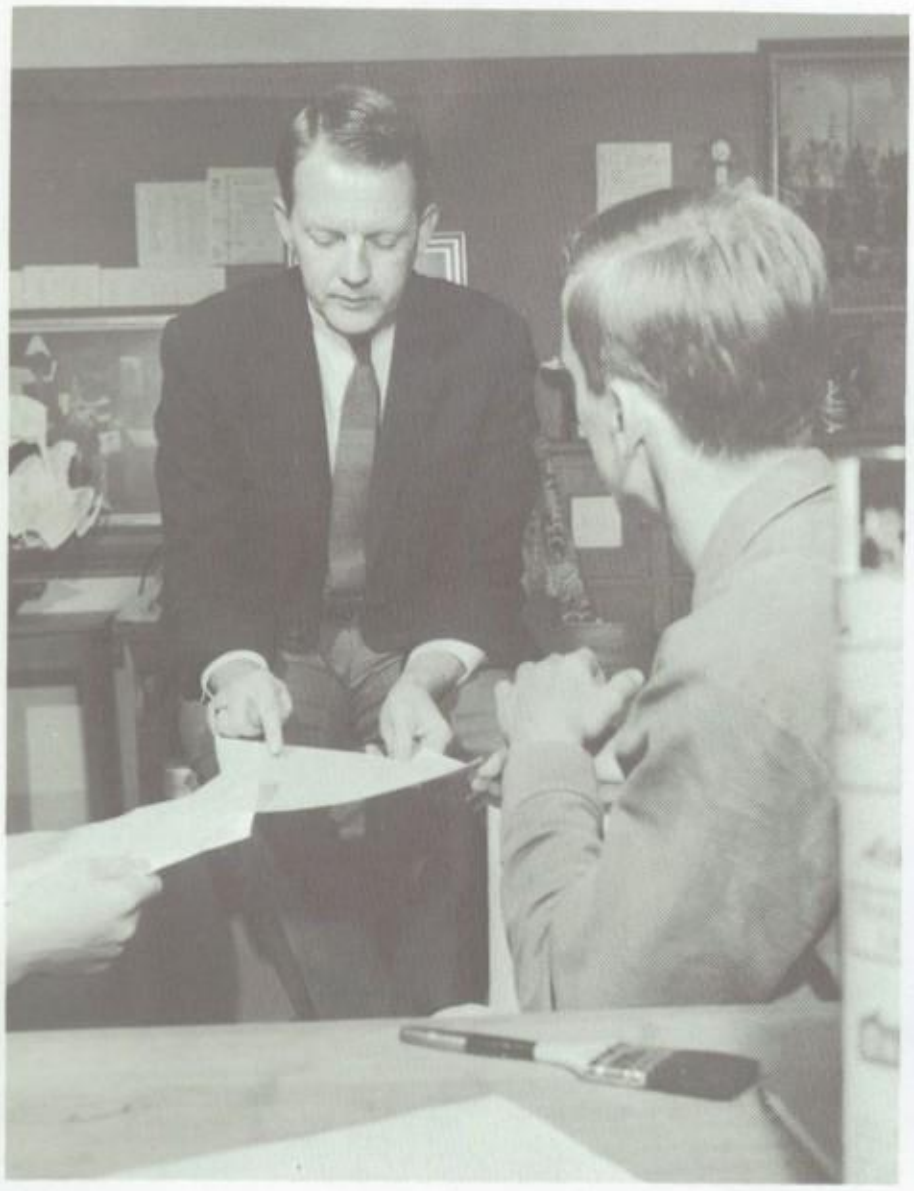


Shall we all bow our heads for a moment of silent prayer.

Do you speak English?

Now will you believe me when I say there was glass on the road?

It has been moved and seconded that we have coeducational classes.



I may not always be right, but I'm never wrong.

The students and their prince.

These are the leaders of tomorrow?

The Student Council is an organization that was formed to coordinate student activities in classes and clubs. The organization consists of students elected by their class. They collect and appropriate funds which are mutually beneficial to all students of the school. One example is the school organ which is in use during concerts and is especially effective during the May Day Ceremonies. By way of an "Exchange Day." They bring new ideas into our school from other schools. In promoting student activities, the Student Council tries to help all.

The members of the National Honor Society are students who show outstanding scholastic achievement and qualities of character, leadership, and service. Our local chapter, Kappa Lamba, was formed in 1947. Each year this organization prepares and presents a program for the initiation of its new members. For nineteen years its members have aided the creation of an enthusiastic environment for scholarship and a desire to serve others and their community. The organization endeavors to stimulate the character development of students in the short time in which they are in school. The local society also attempts to promote further education by giving those who are interested, a chance to visit a college in the vicinity.

The purpose and aims of the Clymer Chapter of Future Farmers of America is to develop leadership, co-operation and citizenship among its members. This is accomplished through a program of work including supervised farming programs, co-operative activities and community service. The highlight of each year is the annual "Parent and Son Banquet" where school officials, community leaders and businessmen are guests of honor. At this banquet a program of awards and honors are bestowed on worthy members.

Twenty-seven years of active service as a Club in Clymer Central School aids the chapter in assuming its responsibility and share of school activities. The Clymer Chapter was chartered as a member of the New York Association of Future Farmers in February 1939. Each member contributes by learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live and living to serve.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Ball, the Future Homemakers of America strive to improve personal, family, and community life. The girls realize the need for self-improvement in the various relationships in life. The organization has been in existence for eleven years, and a member of the New York State Future Homemakers of America. It has given its members an opportunity to express themselves, improve their character, establish high moral codes for living, and to co-operate as a group. The girls work to make their future homes the expressions of everything that is good, where truth love, security, and faith will be realities to them and to those around them.

The P.T.A. is an opportunity to enthusiastically aid in the teaching program of our school. Under the present advisor, Mr. Mack, the Future Teachers of America endeavor to supplement their formal education in activities which lead to a career in teaching.

In taking a realistic look at education, the members have participated in classroom observations, shared in class activities, and questioned many of our own teachers about their careers. By discovering teaching as a vocation, the members enable themselves to decide which area they want to enter.

The F.T.A. serves as a tryout for those who are thinking about a teaching profession.

The purpose of the Libranauts under the direction of Mrs. Rickers is to learn the use of library facilities, to stimulate other students by their own enthusiasm to a greater appreciation of books for knowledge and pleasure, and to help students and teachers locate library materials.

The Music Club, now three years old, strives to promote appreciation of all types of music. They try to do this by listening to and comparing various kinds and types of music.

Under the leadership of its present advisor, Mr. Harrower, the members gain knowledge concerning the basic fundamentals of music. Through this club, the members are enabled to obtain a greater understanding of music as it has grown and changed throughout the years.

The activities of this newly formed club creates added enjoyment to the study and informal atmosphere. They seek to broaden the student's knowledge and appreciation of the ancient Romans and their language. They play games, watch films, do crossword puzzles and sing songs all in Latin.

Thunder rumbled and lightning flashed on the nights of March 31 and April 1, when the class of 1967 presented "All Because of Agatha". The problems faced by a young couple in trying to rid their antiquated house of an ancient witch, Agatha, only served to amuse the audience. Agatha continued her tricks until the night of November 25, when she was doomed by the Latin words Veni, Vidi, Vici (I came, I saw, I conquered) spoken by the triumphant owners of the once haunted house.

Senior Play

The C.C.S. Auditorium was a colorful sight to see as the Senior Class presented their annual play, "A Handful of Rainbows," on the evenings of November 17 and 18. Through the air floated the words of Shakespeare as one of the actors uttered his distinguished lines. The joys and sorrows, worries and laughter of actors and actresses who lived in a boarding house in Hollywood were portrayed. The basic plot called for a means of earning money to pay the monthly rent. Through joys and sorrows the actors and actresses fulfilled this responsibility.

May Day ----

Slowly to the strains of organ music supplied by Mrs. Rhebergen, the Senior girls took their place on the platform as the Queen of May's Court on May 27, 1966. As the trumpets heralded her ascension, queen elect, Elaine Maleski passed down the rose petal strewn path provided by flower girls from the first grade. Through the arches heavy with lilacs, tulips, and other spring flowers provided by the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes and held in place by archbearers, elegantly attired in pastel dresses, queen elect Elaine smiled with sheer joy. This was her hour.

Under an arch of floral pieces the throne, queen elect Elaine signaled the subjects of her realm to pay their respects. Vicky Munnell, the freshman class representative presented a footstool laden with red roses, so striking for a queen. Ruth Mobilia, representative for the sophomore class presented and placed a necklace of red roses on the smiling queen. The representative of the Junior class, Kathy Redlecki, crowned Elaine Queen of May 1966 with a crown of lovely red roses.

Queen Elaine then rose to thank her subjects for the Honor bestowed upon her and signaled the gaily dressed fourth grade girls to wind the annual May Pole. A real command performance was given as around and around they wove the gaily colored streamers.

With grace and dignity the queen and her court returned to school to meet her admirers. Amid flashing bulbs and clicking shutters, all felt that it was a day to remember.

These were the words that will bring memories to all those who attended the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet on May 20, in the Hotel Jamestown. After a banquet of Ham, Fish, Steak, or Scallops, the Master of Ceremonies, Craig Neckers, welcomed the Seniors. Tom Miersma, President of the Senior Class thanked him. The band who played for us this year were the "Modern Men". After the prom everyone returned to the school for a post-prom breakfast. Everyone has memories of a Wonderland by Night.

Music

Senior Band

The band under the baton of Mr. Harrower, practices three times a week, diligently preparing for their presentations in concerts, assemblies, and other competitive programs. They present Spring and Christmas Concerts and march in the Memorial Day Parade in Findley Lake and Clymer. All students in the band receive music lessons to develop music skills and give confidence in individual performance. Band students are given a chance to "try their hand" at conducting as student-conductors during practice sessions and with other musical groups. Band members participate in solo competition at Jamestown, group Band competition at Fredonia and the Sectional All-State Music Band at Silver Creek, New York. To help build school spirit, the Clymer Central Band organizes into smaller groups as "pep" bands, playing for "pep" meetings and rallies. The band regularly marches and plays at certain football games. Each spring the band may be heard practicing as they march around in preparation for some parade.

Sports

Mr. Ball, Mr. Neal

The Freshman team had a successful season, winning over Sherman, Frewsburg, Mayville, Bemis Point, and Sherman. The only losses were to Mayville and Sherman. Although most of them did not play with the varsity, these games will help them next year when they will be the nucleus of the varsity squad. With Coach McMullin as their mentor, they know the meaning of hard work. They learned the fundamentals this year which will help them in the future to carry on the winning tradition that this years varsity squad has established.

The Clymer Varsity Football team had its most successful season in many years this past year. Under their new coaching staff Coach Ball and Coach Neal the boys were worked into shape early so they would be ready for their first game with Randolph on the 17th of September. The Pirates opened with an 18-9 win over the Cardinals for their first opening day victory in a number of years. This win was to start the guys on their way to a winning season. After hitting the skids in a 0-0 tie with Ripley, and a loss to Pine Valley, the Pirates came back strong with a 12-0 shutout of the Southwestern J.V.; then on to Forestville and a 7-6 squeaker over the Hornets. The boys became confident of winning the rest of their games only to be upset 15-13 by an inspired Brocton team. But as they had all season, they bounced back with a beautiful 31-14 smashing of Mayville and a 14-6 trouncing of arch rival Sherman. The Pirates had a good season and although they made mistakes which cost them, they feel that they have started a winning tradition which will be carried on by the boys in the years to come.

The basketball teams, both Varsity and Junior Varsity, took the hard woods for their first practice on the seventh of November. With good turn-outs for both teams, the coaches, Ball and Neal, were optimistic of good seasons. The boys on the teams were optimistic of a good season, too. Basketball at Clymer should be good this year.

The 1966 edition of the Clymer Baseball team was a good one. With a lot of talent they compiled a 4-3 record with wins over Ripley, Mayville, Frewsburg, and Chautauqua. There were only two Seniors on the team so this years team should really be able to clean up on the league.

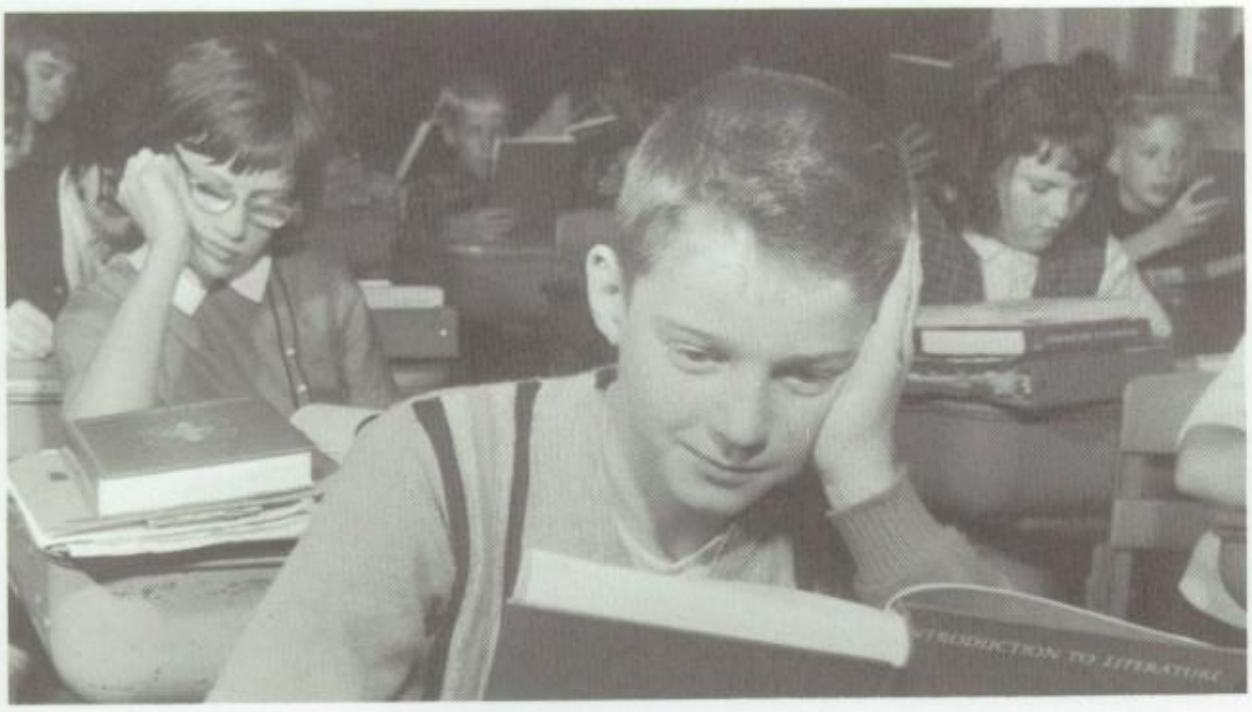
Class Play



Gee, this is great!

Junior High Classes

Now let me think ....

....you with the hair ....

Although nearly fifty percent of each graduating class goes on to some form of higher training, the administration is trying to increase this percentage with each successive year.

To enhance student interest in learning, several educational aids have been purchased and are in use while several more are to be bought in the future. The new micro-film reader-printer offers to the student various films, an example is the NEW YORK TIMES, dating back to the 1930's. The addition of five new microscopes to the Biology Department is helping junior biologists observe the behavior of organisms too small to be seen by the naked eye. Other visual innovations which might be mentioned are the listening centers and language masters, overhead projectors, tape recorders, specimen models, programmed learning materials and many more for the future.

Consideration is being given to closed-circuit television with programmed sequences and stations for center and individual room use.

Materials from the Board of Cooperative Educational Services at Fredonia are also available, delivered to the school each day and returned by carrier.

Student incentive to learn is high at Clymer Central.
